Anthony Zelen, CEO of Rush, comments, “As we mark our third month as a publicly traded company, Rush Gold Corp. is proud of the strong foundation we’ve built as a U.S.-focused mineral exploration company. We are incredibly excited about the potential of our flagship Skylight property in Nevada, and the recent acquisition of the Legal Tender silver property which further strengthens our portfolio. With our upsized financing now increased from $350,000 to $500,000 anticipated to close on October 1st, we will be well-positioned to advance exploration and development. Nevada Properties

Regarding the Nevada properties, CEO, Anthony Zelen, adds, “We feel Rush Gold is strategically positioned within a highly prospective exploration corridor”. He continues, “following the spectacular discovery of over 16 million ounces of gold near Beatty, exploration activity along Walker Lane has accelerated significantly in recent years. In the central Walker Lane, significant silver resources have been defined by Blackrock Silver at Tonopah, south of Rush Gold, while Fortitude Gold is advancing the County Line Project toward production just north of our project. Almadex Exploration, P2 Gold, Excalibur Metals, Kinross, Viva Gold, Mammoth Metals, Walker Lane Resources, A2 Gold, and Eminent Gold, among others, have announced property acquisitions and initiated work in the area.
